-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims [1-2 apparatus], [3-4 method], [5-6 computer readable], [7-8 rewritable optical disc], [9-10, optical disc recording apparatus], are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims [1, 3 apparatus], [4, 6 method], [7, 9 computer readable], [10, 12, optical disc recording apparatus] of U.S. Patent No. 6,353,704. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because.

Art Unit: 2616

Regarding claims 1-10, against patented claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 9, 10, 12, recite all as recited between, but, there exist a difference in scope between the claims such as:

The formula as recited in application claims uses a [=] operator, but, the patented claims use [= & >], therefore, the patented claims are deemed narrower for further reciting the > operator.

Further it is further noted that the patented claims provide for writable, but, the patented claims fail to recite re-writable.

The examiner takes official notice that mediums can be writable which reads on a WORM, but, rewritable reads on a RAM or RW type disks, well known in the art, therefore, it would have been obvious to those skilled in the art at the time of the invention to further recite rewritable in claim 10, for the optical disk type as being an obvious disk type, as is well known to those skilled in the art.

Allowance of claims 1-10 of the instant application would result in a time-wise extension of the monopoly previously granted for the invention defined by patent claim(s), therefore, obviousness type double patenting is deemed proper.
